RAF Cosford Fly-In and Museum Visit

NOTE - CHANGE OF DATE

For operational reasons RAF Cosford is unable to accept civil aircraft at the weekend and the museum is hosting a large educational event for schools on Monday 12th, so the visit has been rescheduled for Monday 19th July

RAF Cosford, Monday 19th July 2010
From 10.00 – 16.30

Set in scenic Shropshire, the Royal Air Force Museum's Cosford site is vast and includes collections covering the Cold War, Test Flight, War Planes and Transport.

The BWPA has arranged a 2 hour guided tour starting at 11.00 that takes in the Warplanes, Transport and the Test Flight collections. Your guide will take you through the wartime hangars picking out highlights such as the world's oldest Spitfire. Brief historical information will be given on the aircraft on display including what makes the individual exhibits special.

Refreshments are available on site in the Checkpoint Charlie Café in the National Cold War Exhibition and in the Refuel Restaurant in the Visitor Centre or, if the weather's nice, why not bring a picnic to eat in the grounds?

There's plenty of time after lunch to re-visit areas of interest from the morning's tour or to explore areas not covered before flying home.

The airfield is open to visiting aircraft from 10.00 to 16.30 local. All visiting aircraft require PPR and this can be obtained by completing the request form at:

<http://www.raf.mod.uk/rafcosford/flyinginfo/flyintocosford.cfm>. Please note that a copy of the aircraft insurance showing a Ministry of Defence indemnity of £7.5 million will be required.

There is a concessionary landing fee of £22.90 + VAT for visitors to the museum (payable on the day). For those wishing to drive there is a car parking charge of £2 for up to 3 hours and £3 for 3-8 hours.

Cost: £5 per person
